1. Who can see the magnificent, the beauty, royalty, of heaven? I love you seer of me, my beauty, my who love me royally; seeking to understand me now that you've arrived, not; but shown them more, that my name/kingdom is more, and more I have/am in them all. I love/thank you.

2. I adore you all who see, try; and magnificently displaying my power now I exchange you for no other. I am me. One. I love you deeply, surrenderingly, surrendering to your wants, not; mine. Do you want anything not mine, have any wants not mine? I doubt it not, I know it/me. I love you.

3. Into you seen mighty, mightily; and whoso can see the son birthed and what meaneth this now upon lands, foreign soil not, ours? And what can become/behold the man of sorrows no more sorrows.

4. See, feel, vibrate. Contusions not, but sores not, but what wherefore art on thou son of man in sorrow still? See, eat the bread of sorrow, not; but ingest the living word that now heals, beckons your name directly, increasingly, boldly, declaring my love in/to you, my lover, who love me, I died for/in.

5. I love you. See what I have said/declared.

11. Beholden me, beholding, beholding.
12. Holden, me. I love you all.

14. Go now. See the relief not but the council mine, counsel mine, council of counsel mine and whoso now comes in seats of me, not; but drawing up my chair, not; plan, I love/give you mine, completely mine; all through kingdom one, two, united, etc. I love you.

15. Thank you for writing/receiving my hearts, not; heart, one heart, ours.
